TARTARS FAVORITES AS GAUCHOS ARE DOWNED

By Bud Smith

For the first time in seven years, the Torrance high school varsity football team, last Thursday defeated the Narbonne Gauchos. This was the second victory for the Tartars, but they have met only the league's weakest teams.

The game began with the Tartars kicking off to the Gauchos. The Gauchos carried the ball three times, and found that they made only one yard, and that was in the wrong direction, so Garrison punted. In three plays, the Tartars went sixteen yards for a first down. Then came three plunges. Johnson for two yards, George for nothing, and Don Cook for twelve yards.

In three more tries, the Tartars reached the ten yard and appeared to be touchdown bound. Bill Johnson fumbled, giving Narbonne a break. Narbonne carried the pigskin three more, and again found that they had gained nothing. The Narbonne punt started another drive which looked as though it would end in a touchdown.

Again, as before, the Tartars got slippery fingers, and George fumbled giving the ball to the Gauchos.

Narbonne then found themselves in the shadow of their own goal posts, so they punted, but it went out on the Gauchos 23 yard line. Ralph George passed for twenty yards, and then scored two plays later.

Robert Warning, who incidentally, played his last game for the Tartars because he is to go into the Navy, kicked off for the Tartars. It rolled over the ten yard restraining line, and the Tartars fell on it to regain possession of the ball. The Torrance squad was held for downs for the first time, so they punted. The punt was picked up by Garrison on the goal line, who at that moment was hit by Bill Dietlin, scoring a safety. The Gauchos kicked off, and after a series of short gains, the half ended, with the score 8-0 in favor of Torrance.

The Gauchos kicked to start the second half. The Tartars forgot to find some glue during the half, and on the first play, George fumbled. Narbonne again gained nothing and their attempted punt was blocked. Kenney Shaw and George each netted nothing for one try each. Then Bud Smith passed to Leroy Schwenk for 14 yards, but on the next play George's pass was intercepted. The Gauchos went for three first downs, but were held for downs. Their punt was again blocked, and Schwenk carried it to the twenty-one. Then Don Cook passed to Schwenk for a touchdown.

The rest of the third quarter was full of pass interceptions. On the second play of the 4th stanza the Tartars passed to set up another touchdown. George passed to Dan Moon for the score. Torrance kicked off to Narbonne again, and again Narbonne was held on downs, and Garrison punted out on the Tartars 26. Bill Johnson carried the pigskin for 20 yards, in two plays, and George passed to Moon to give them a first down on the 46.

Then George passed to Holloman, who streaked over to score. The Tartars kicked off, and again held Narbonne on downs, where Torrance took over, and the game ended with the final score 28-0.

Torrance rests this week, but next week meets Banning on the Torrance field.

Sport-o-bins

By John R. Stripling

As the baseball season for 1945 draws to a close, we have noted with a great deal of interest the juvenile attendance records, under the supervision of the Torrance City Recreation Department.

These figures show that from June 7 to Aug. 28 of this year, that 124 attended on 44 established days of play, for an average of 28 in attendance per day. These figures also included out of town games to Hawthorne, Wilmington, Long Beach and Walteria.

Now that touch football is in the limelight and basketball just around the corner, many are wondering what will be done about gymnasium facilities for community recreation in Torrance.

As it stands now, gym facilities are very inadequate in our town and although the recreation department is said to be working hard for a solution, as yet nothing has developed.

Those that can, and will, should make every effort to aid in this problem that may create a set-back in the good work already accomplished.

Local Boys Make Clean Sweep At Harbor Area Meet

Boys who were high scorers in the Torrance recreation department's football passing, receiving and punting contests held recently at the city park traveled to Daniel's Field, San Pedro last Saturday and made a clean sweep in all divisions.

Seniors, juniors and midgets, brought all the Harbor area championships for 1945 back to Torrance. In the senior division, for ages 16-18; Jack Taylor moved up from the juniors to team up with Thomas Faren who boosted his score of 93, making him the senior "champ" of Torrance, to a neat 94, but Taylor came along with 3 towering spiral kicks for an average boot of 55 yards bringing his total score to a grand 105, eclipsing all previous records and winning for him the Harbor senior championship certificate.

In the junior group for ages

Coach Winfield remarked the other day that a new spirit had sprung up among his football squad, one so alive as to fire him anew. Winfield said that it was one of those things that you could almost take hold of and of course he beamed in genuine sincerity while telling of it.

He may have something there, for I was only around a short time, watching the boys fight for that pigskin, when suddenly I felt an urge to join them. Of course, that would not quite work out, but none the less, the spirit was willing with only my ailing flesh applying the binders.

14-15, Harry Theodosios, who had scored an 88 to win the Torrance recreation crown, dropped 5 points on one bad kick and scored an 85, while Ralph Hammond was boosting his Torrance score of 86 up to 90 which won the Harbor area junior award.

The only Torrance champion to repeat at the San Pedro meet was young "Jim" Taylor, Jack's kid brother, who competed in the Midget division, for ages 13 and under, and won with a dandy score of 84, which bettered his Torrance score of 78 by 6 points. Jack Faren had a bad day, dropping from 77 to 71. James Turner was in the same boat and fell from a 76 to a heartbreaking 62.

Another meet similar to this is planned but with the possible addition of several events, such as kick-off for distance, pass for distance and accuracy, place kick and center snap back. These events will give the boys an opportunity to see how they have improved their play after a season's practice.
